

Where study meets sustainability

#1 in climate
action globally

TIMES HIGHER EDUCATION IMPACT RANKINGS 2024

Study with us, and you become part of a positive sustainable future

By choosing to study with us, you'll become part of the world's leading university on climate action.¹ Working together, we became certified carbon neutral in 2016² and have since divested from fossil fuels, joined the global Race to Zero, and committed to reducing our emissions by at least 50% by 2030.

Our understanding of sustainability is holistic, working towards the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals, we're committed to improving socio-cultural, economic and environmental outcomes in Tasmania and beyond.

For the third year running, we have been recognised as #1 in Climate Action Globally, thanks to the dedication and support of our University community. We see sustainability as an opportunity across everything we do and are passionate about the role you can play as a student.

We acknowledge the Palawa/Pakana people of lutruwita (Tasmania) and the Gadigal people of Sydney, the traditional owners and custodians of the land upon which we live and work. We pay respects to Elders past and present as the knowledge holders and sharers. We honour their strong culture and knowledge as vital to the self-determination, wellbeing, and strength of their communities. We stand for a future that profoundly respects and acknowledges Aboriginal perspectives, culture, language and history.
