Joint statement from the University of Tasmania and the Centre for Legal Studies Ltd

The Centre for Legal Studies has historically enjoyed a strong relationship with the University of Tasmania in delivering the Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice through the Tasmanian Legal Practice Course.

In response to recent concerns raised with the University by senior members of the Tasmanian legal profession regarding proposed changes to the delivery of the Graduate Diploma, a meeting was held today between the Vice Chancellor and representatives of the Board of the Centre for Legal Studies.

The University and the Centre for Legal Studies are pleased to announce they will work together to deliver the Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice for Semester 1 in 2023.

Both parties are committed to ensuring the unique nature of the Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice is retained while ensuring the course complies with national accreditation standards associated with delivery of practical legal training.
